POLICY GUIDELINES ON THE INSTITUTIONALIZATION OF THE SCHOOL SPORTS CLUB IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

I. RATIONALE

Sports have always been an avenue for promoting physical fitness and wellness. Sports as a physical activity build on physical literacy, which is an essential component of a healthy lifestyle. Physically literate individuals are competent, confident, and motivated to move. Every child is predisposed to be active if the environment encourages participation. Article 31 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child recognizes the right of the child to rest and leisure, to engage in play and recreational activities appropriate to the age of the child, and to participate freely in cultural life and the arts. Article XIV, Section 19 of the 1987 Philippine Constitution declares that the State shall promote physical education and encourage sports programs, league competitions, and amateur sports, including training for international competitions, to foster self-discipline, teamwork, and excellence for the development of a healthy and alert citizenry. All educational institutions shall undertake regular sports activities throughout the country in cooperation with athletic clubs and other sectors.

The World Health Organization Guidelines on Physical Activity and Sedentary Behavior require children and adolescents to do at least an average of 60 minutes per day of moderate to vigorous-intensity, mostly aerobic, physical activity, across the week to limit the amount of time spent being sedentary, particularly the amount of recreational screen time. However, each school day traditionally provides a sedentary setting with at least 6 hours spent sitting inside the classroom. As children move through adolescence, they become less physically active. In 2016, the Philippines was the country with the highest prevalence of insufficient activity in adolescents (Guthold, et.al., 2019). Meanwhile, the results of the 2022 Philippine Physical Activity Report Card conveyed that most Filipino children and adolescents in the country fail to meet the recommended amount of physical activity for health by the World Health Organization and that there is an increasing trend in sedentary behaviors (Cagas, et.al., 2022). Our youth need to participate in daily physical activities at moderate-to-vigorous intensity levels for at least 60 minutes to optimize their health. To improve the physical fitness of learners, there is a need for a school sports program that will supplement and complement the PE curriculum, increasing the time allotted for physical activity afforded during the MAPEH period.

Section 9 of Republic Act No. 9155, or the “Governance of Basic Education Act of 2001,” transfers all functions, programs, and activities of the Department of Education related to sports competition to the Philippine Sports Commission (PSC). However, the program for school sports and physical fitness remains an integral part of the basic education curriculum. Similarly, Section 8 of Republic Act No. 10533, otherwise known as the “Enhanced Basic Education Act of 2013,” underscores the need to enhance basic education by implementing programs that address the physical, intellectual, psycho-social, and cultural needs of learners, including but not limited to programs for learners with disabilities.

In support with the Department's agenda to ensure an enabling learning environment and the well-being of learners, the Bureau of Learner-Support Services-School Sports Division (BLSS-SSD), endeavors to integrate more physical activity into the curriculum, to reduce sedentary behavior through a separate daily period in the school program for sports, to make sports participation more accessible to a wide spectrum of Filipinos, and to encourage every child to play, learn and engage in at least one sport. The School Sports Club (SSC) serves as an extension of formal learning and a supplement to classroom lessons by providing fun and engaging sporting activities that align with students' abilities, interests, competencies, and advocacies. It recognizes the diverse capabilities of all learners and harnesses the transformative power of sports to empower individuals and contribute positively to society.

The SSC extends beyond physical activity. It fosters holistic development by promoting physical health, enhancing social skills, instilling discipline, and encouraging teamwork and leadership. Through sports, learners develop resilience, self-confidence, and a sense of camaraderie that prepares them for real-life challenges. Additionally, participation in organized sports provides learners with opportunities for self-expression, stress relief, and a balanced lifestyle that supports their academic pursuits. By integrating sports into education, the SSC plays a crucial role in shaping well-rounded individuals who are not only physically active but also mentally resilient and socially responsible, ultimately contributing to national progress and development.

II. SCOPE

This DepEd Order (DO) shall be the Department's standing policy guidelines on the institutionalization of School Sports Clubs for learners in all elementary and secondary schools, including Community Learning Centers (CLC) and Inclusive Learning Resource Centers (ILRCs) nationwide. Private Educational Institutions offering basic education and Philippine schools overseas are encouraged to adopt this policy.

IV. POLICY STATEMENT

The Department of Education (DepEd) affirms its commitment to the holistic development of learners by recognizing accessible sports participation through school sports clubs as a significant avenue for ensuring physical fitness and promoting well-being. Specifically, this DepEd Order aims to:

- A. allow for more active and accessible sports participation among all types of learners
- B. improve the physical fitness levels of learners
- C. contribute to the holistic development and well-being (emotional, physical, social, intellectual) of learners

V. PROCEDURES

A. Frameworks

1. Conceptual Framework

The Comprehensive School Sports Program (CSSP) supports the Department of Education's (DepEd) thrust of promoting the holistic development of all learners through active engagement in sports and physical activities. The CSSP has three (3) major components namely: (1) Sports Education and Standards which contains the program to institutionalize Sports Clubs in Public Schools, the development of the Manual of Operations for the SSC, the Sports Manual for Teachers and Learners, and the Philippine Games Handbook, (2) Sports as Learner Support Program, which offers the Sports Supplies Equipment Enhancement and Distribution Program (SSEEDPi), the National Orientation-Workshop of School Heads & Division Focal Persons on the Institutionalization of SSC and the Capacity Building for SSC Facilitators, and (3) School Sports Competition for the Sports Club Festivals, Extramurals and DepEd Sports Skills Demonstration Contest.

The SSC program is framed within the Comprehensive School Sports Program. The framework for the SSC is integral in providing opportunities for learners to engage in fun and active physical fitness, as well as for them to learn basic life skills and values through various SSC activities.

At the center of the program is the learner, represented by a human with two tones (blue and red), which signifies gender equality. At the same time, the dynamic movement symbolizes that the learner is at play and having fun. The program provides learners with an opportunity to participate in a variety of competitive and recreational sports activities within and among schools. The outer part of the framework reflects the four (4) SSC program principles:

- a. Inclusive, because it welcomes all learners regardless of their abilities, interests, sports experiences, or backgrounds, age, and gender. This includes learners with physical, sensory, and intellectual disabilities.
- b. Developmentally appropriate practice, transition activities that include skill and fitness development, play, lead-up games from child to adolescent, their changing capabilities, and their varied physical, mental, cognitive, affective, and kinesthetic needs

- c. Lifelong success-oriented, because it acknowledges that the mastery of sports takes time. Lifelong participation and excellence in sports can best be achieved through a solid foundation of movement skills and sport-specific skills, participation in a variety of sports at a young age, and further specialization.
- d. Olympism, how sport can make the world a better place by encouraging friendship, togetherness, and fair play, and make us all better citizens through the combination of mind, body, and spirit. Its goal is to help foster better relationships between communities and nations, helping us to live in harmony with each other.

Between the center and the program principles are the objectives of the SSC:

- a. Enhancing physical literacy through accessible sports participation
- b. Optimizing health through engagement in various physical activities along defined key stages of learning
- c. Forming character through a values-based approach
- d. Creating sports pathways for long-term development and success

2. Management of the School Sports Club Program

- a. Organizational Structure – defines how the sports club is organized and activities are delivered. It identifies the different roles and functions of program participants to illustrate the clear channels of direction, communication, authority, and accountability

⁴ DepEd Sports Manual, 2021

- b. Policy and Guidelines – prescribe courses of action and recommended rules or instructions that govern the management of the SSC program
 - c. Curriculum and Program Standards – consist of the contents and values a club member should know and be able to do; the delivery and assessment in terms of a specific level of performance and achievement
 - d. Program Resources – tap sources of support (human, physical, and fiscal) for the program to operate effectively
 - e. Partnership and Linkages – establish collaboration and networking with relevant individuals and/or groups for sports advocacy, promotion of volunteerism, mobilization of resources, and sustainability of club operations
- 3. School Sports Club Structure – The sample structure of the SSC, as shown in Figure 7, identifies the different program implementers in the establishment and organization of the sports club. This structure may vary depending on the size and capacity of the school, as well as the number of sports being offered in the SSC.
 - a. The School Head shall assess the readiness and capacity of the school by referring to the Enhanced School Improvement Plan, Annual Implementation Plan, and the Office and Individual Performance Commitment Review Forms to validate entry points in the management of the school's sports club program. The School Head shall establish partnerships and linkages internally (e.g., school canteen, Parents-Teachers Association) and externally, through the Adopt-A-School Program in RA No. 8525, for the improvement of sports facilities and the development of teachers.
 - b. SSC implementers, which include the Coordinator and Facilitator, shall be DepEd teaching or non-teaching personnel. Designation as a sports club implementer (i.e., coordinator, facilitator) will be treated as a teaching-related assignment as a Sports Development Program Trainer/Adviser. The School Head shall designate one School Sports Club Coordinator who shall assist in managing the SSC program. Each sport offered has a School Sports Club Facilitator/s (i.e., Arnis Club Facilitator) who shall conduct sports club activities for learners in achieving physical literacy (i.e., key stage, skill level). In the case of small schools, teaching or non-teaching personnel may have more than one designation as sports club coordinator and facilitator. Designated program implementers shall be given capacity-building activities related to club management and sports skills training. The designation of teachers must follow the parameters and procedures provided in DepEd Order No. 005, s. 2024 and DepEd Memorandum No. 053, s. 2024.
 - c. The School Sports Club members shall include all types of learners who are interested in joining the SSC. Separate guidelines shall be issued for schools to ensure inclusive sports participation of LWDs and ALS learners. The School Sports Club Officers shall serve as liaisons between the club members and the SSC facilitator.

4. Participation Matrix

In this matrix, interest or participation levels are represented on the horizontal axis. It ranges from playing games for recreational purposes to playing games competitively. Skill level is represented on the vertical axis with a range of proficiencies from low or developing to high. Every learner who chooses to join a sports club may belong to any of the four quadrants at a point in time:

- a. Performance Athlete – is one we commonly refer to as the varsity player;
- b. Emerging Athlete – is one who is motivated to compete but with a developmental level skill set;
- c. Recreational Athlete – is one who is highly proficient but chooses not to compete;
- d. Potential Athlete – is one who chooses to join the club as a beginner but can move, with the provision of the proper learning environment, to any of the remaining quadrants over time.

5. Alignment of PE and Sports Club Key Stage Standards

Figure 4: Sports Club Standards as per the Philippine Curriculum

⁵ DepEd Sports Manual, 2021

Figure 4 Illustrates how the SSC Standard supplements the motor skills and complements the current Philippine Curriculum “Physical Education Standards” whose main objective is to increase the physical activity of the learners.

At Key Stage 1, learners are introduced to fundamental movement and motor skills while developing personal and cultural awareness. This stage emphasizes the development of learners at their young age.

In Key Stage 2, learners improve their skills by engaging in various sports/dance movements and executing mature movement skill patterns in a sport and dance context. They learn to demonstrate movements in promoting health and wellness for active and healthy living.

Moving into Key Stage 3, students start focusing their skills on a specific sport/dance while still participating in multiple physical activities. This stage also deepens their understanding of movements in promoting health wellness for active and healthy living.

Finally, Key Stage 4 aims for sports/dance proficiency while enjoying the games. It promotes a lifelong commitment to physical activity while fostering 21st-century skills such as critical thinking, collaboration, and problem-solving, ensuring that students remain active and healthy throughout adulthood.

6. School Sports Club Logo

The Lit Brazier represents the desire to learn basic life skills and values.

The five abstracts on the brazier represent the initials for the School Sports Club (SSC).

The colorful twelve (12) figures with varying colors and sizes around the brazier represent Kindergarten to 12th grade learners.

A ring is placed around the logo symbolizing the Afterschool Sports Program principles; Inclusive, Enjoyable, and Active. Inclusive means open for all, Enjoyable means voluntary basis considering the interests of the learners, and Active means being physically active to achieve physical fitness through play and fun.

The human figure with two tones (blue & red) represents a dynamic movement symbolizing the learner is at play and having fun.
